

Dr. Cynthia Berthiaume

Psychologist / Neuropsychologist

Professional association memberships

Association québécoise des neuropsychologues (AQNP)
Ordre des psychologues du Québec (OPQ)
College of psychologists of New-Brunswick (CPNB)

Education

Doctorate in Psychology - Neuropsychology (Psy.D)

Laval University, Québec, QC

September 2013 – August 2017

Bachelor of Arts, Psychology, Honours Program

McGill University, Montréal, QC

September 2009 – April 2013

College degree in social sciences

Cégep Saint-Jérôme, Saint-Jérôme, QC

August 2006 – May 2008

High School degree, IB program

Polyvalente Saint-Jérôme, Saint-Jérôme, QC

September 2001 – June 2006

Work experiences

Psychologist

Private practice, St-Colomban, QC

- Individual sessions with adults
- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy for Insomnia

August 2024 - Present

Clinical Neuropsychologist and Psychologist,

Rehabilitation center, CISSS des Laurentides, St-Jérôme, QC

- Neuropsychological assessments and individual therapy sessions with adults
- Assessments and sessions in French and English
- Referral questions: epilepsy, return to work, return to school, traumatic brain injury, stroke, disability, mild cognitive impairment, multiple sclerosis, tumors, differential diagnosis
- Working with a multidisciplinary team: physiotherapists, occupational therapists, social workers, speech language pathologists
- Clinical case discussions

July 2022 - Present

Clinical Neuropsychologist

Centre de services scolaires de la Rivière-du-Nord, Lachute, QC

- Neuropsychological assessments with children, teenagers and adults
- Assessments in French and English
- Clinical interviews, standardized cognitive testing, feedback sessions
- Working with a multidisciplinary team: psychologists, teachers, school board

November 2021 – July 2022

Clinical Neuropsychologist

Clinique d'évaluation et de réadaptation cognitive (CERC), Laval, QC

- Neuropsychological assessments with children, teenagers and adults
- Assessments in French and English
- Clinical interviews, standardized cognitive testing, feedback sessions
- Referral questions: ADHD, learning disability, HPI

September 2020 – July 2022

Clinical Neuropsychologist

Private Clinic, Dieppe, NB

- Neuropsychological assessments with adults
- Assessments in French and English
- Clinical interviews, standardized cognitive testing, feedback sessions
- Referral questions: return to work, work accommodations, return to school, traumatic brain injury, stroke, long-term disability, mild cognitive impairment, dementia, differential diagnosis, multiple sclerosis

January 2019 – July 2022

Clinical Neuropsychologist

The Moncton Hospital, Moncton, NB

- Neuropsychological assessments with adults and older adults
- Assessments in French and English
- Clinical interviews, standardized cognitive testing, feedback sessions
- Referral questions: epilepsy, return to work, work accommodations, return to school, capacity assessment, traumatic brain injury, stroke, pre-surgery and post-surgery protocol, long-term disability, mild cognitive impairment, dementia, differential diagnosis, multiple sclerosis
- Working with a multidisciplinary team: physiotherapists, occupational therapists, nurses, family physicians, physiatrist, dietitian, psychologists, psychiatrists
- Referrals from: family physician, psychiatrist, physiatrist, neurologist
- Member of the Moncton Concussion Consortium

October 2017 – September 2020

Clinical experiences

Internship in clinical neuropsychology

Supervisors: Dr. Daniel L. Drane, Dr. David W. Loring and Dr. Ekaterina Staikova

Neurology department, Emory University School of Medicine, Atlanta, Georgia

- Neuropsychological assessments with young adults and adults
- Observation of neuropsychological assessments and working with children with epilepsy
- Clinical interviews, assessments and neuropsychological reports
- Administration, scoring and interpretation of neuropsychological tests
- Clinical case discussions with neurologists, neuropsychologists and neurosurgeons
- Participating in research projects, completing neuropsychological assessments
- Participating in a memory support group for patients with mild cognitive impairment, participating in a cognitive rehabilitation program (calendar)

August 2016 – August 2017

Stage in clinical neuropsychology

Supervisor: Joanne Roy

Neurology and epilepsy department, Enfant-Jésus Hospital, Québec, QC

- Neuropsychological assessments with young adults, adults and elderly
- Referral questions: stroke, epilepsy, movement disorders, dementia
- Clinical interviews, assessments, and feedback sessions
- Administration, scoring and interpretation of neuropsychological tests
- Assisting on WADA procedure for pre-operative epilepsy surgery
- Following neurologists during neurological examinations
- Individual and group supervision
- Clinical case discussions

September 2014 - May 2016

Funding

Master's funding 2015-2016 – 15 000$

Fonds de Recherche du Québec – Santé (FRQS)

September 2015 – August 2016

Master's funding 2014 – 2015 – 17 500$

Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR)

September 2014 – August 2015

Award from the graduate and postgraduate studies– 14 000$

Social Sciences faculty, Laval University, QC

September 2013 – August 2017

Master's funding 2013-2014 – 12 000$

CIRRIS, Québec, QC

September 2013 – August 2014

Summer research project funding – 4 000$

CIRRIS, Québec, QC

May 2013 – August 2013

Distinctions

Certificat d'excellence universitaire 2018

Société Canadienne de Psychologie, Université Laval, QC

Master's funding 2015-2016 – 1st rank

Fonds de recherche du Québec – Santé (FRQS)

First Class Honours, Bachelor of Arts, Psychology

McGill University, Montréal, QC

Distinction, Bachelor of Arts, Psychology

McGill University, Montréal, QC

Languages

French

Writing, reading, spoken

English

Writing, reading, spoken